

KLOVE radio station serves my community in a very positive way. It promotes family values, fairness, and truth. If this station were replaced in my area, then it would leave a void in positive, uplifting messages on the air waves. I believe that it is in the public interest to continue to allow KLOVE to broadcast as it is currently because of the good influence it has on listeners. It encourages listeners to do good things and to help others.